Some Stocks Higher, While List Is Generally Strong. Gossip of the Street.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 .- During the last half hour the market displayed great activity, and sharp gains were made. Field was operating in Brooklyn Rapid Transit. Reading was again the leader and recovered its dividend, going to 109 on very heavy buying by shorts in the last few minutes of Pennsylvania was also taken in hand and given a fine support that carried it to 117 or a point better. Great North-ern recovered most of its early loss and joined the very strong shares. Union Pacific was firm. Copper and Smelter were slightly lower. The Steels were nearly at yesterday's close. Brooklyn

Rapid Transit sold to 45. NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Noon.—There were symptoms of a reaction in the market this morning, but none whatever of a bad break, or anything but optimism. Easy money is the factor. This was evidenced through the appearance here and there of pool stock that Miss has not been distributed, indicating Nati plainly that the market for money is so satisfactory to the financial men that they are not discriminating on collateral, but are doing their best for their customers and assisting in the recovery thereby. While there was hesitation and a point decline on the average in the list, the feeling was bullish, and commission houses reported a large number of orders waiting for a little The shorts have received a severe drubbing, and most of the leaders have yielded to the inevitable as a result yielded to the inevitable as a result of the buil movement under the leadership of Jakey Field, but there are still some large shorts uncovered and an attempt will be made to run them in.

The market has and is being manipulated by pools, that selected first one stock and then another, as a market leader, and is distributing other securities on the strength produced by the material advance in leaders. For weeks it was Reading that boomed the whole list. Then the strong Hill stocks were given an additional boost, and yesterday the pools took up. New York Central and the Steel issues. This boom movement has been executed with masterly precision.

Declaring that a general and unmistakable expression from residents in Offer Cortelyou the District would bring about pro-hibition, Senator Tillman delivered a strong address against liquor selling at a mass meeting of the local temperance unions at the First Congressional Church last evening.

You know what you want, but you don't know how to get it," said he. Senator Tillman began his address by washington paper to that effect was incorrect.

"I take a drink when I want one," he said, "but I rarely ever want one, I am in Congress with the rest of my colleagues to do the bidding of the people, as their representative, and if they desire prohibition, then I am, as a matter of course, going to do what I can to give them what they want." He told of the peculiar position in which the residents of the city of Washington were placed. He said it was of little use for him to tell the people here what their position was relative to the conduct of affairs in the District.

"You haven't got a vote," he declared, "and, therefore, must rely upon the fellows on the hill to see that you get what you vant. How many of you really want prohibition? It's a question that needs considerable thought. I believe you should have a representative in Congress to watch out for your interests—a man elected by you for that purpose. The Territorles have them, I guess the Philippines will soon have them—why not the District of Columbia? If you do want prohibition, as many of you here tonight have demonstrated, then you must organize, you must request it of Congress as a many of you here tonight have demonstrated, then you must organize, you must request to of George & Goorge & Goorge & Woold & Coat Sweaters.

The Rev. Zed H. Copp introduced Senator Alexander S. Clay of Georgia, who presided at the meeting. A number of local maisters delivered addresses favoring prohibition in the District.

With an abundant supply of poultry and daily products which far exceeded the demand, prices this morning dropped lower than they have been for several months. From 20 to 31 cents per dozen, eggs fell to 22 and 23 cents for the best nearby stock. It is expected that these conditions will continue until at least the end of the week, unless the weather grows more seasonable.

For the first time in several weeks receipts of rabbits were insufficient to all an active demand. As a result the figures advanced slightly. Quali came in fairly good quantities, the price remaining unchanged.
